

2022 Fall Webinar Series

Entire Series: $150 members/$300 non-members (Register by September 6)

Individual Webinars: $60 members/$120 for non-members

All webinars take place from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. (Pacific)

All registered attendees will receive a recording of the webinar following each live event

September 14: “Your Message Matters”

As your chamber evolves to serve your business community as a catalyst, convener and champion, your words matter. In this session you will dig deep into the types of messages, information and data that will excite and engage your members.

Presenter: Sean Mikula, Power 10

October 5: “Setting Healthy Boundaries and Managing Stress”

As a membership organization, it can be challenging to balance member needs and your personal and organizational capacity. In this session, you will learn practical tips to help you find a better balance.

Presenters: Jefferson Center for Mental Wellness Instructors

November 2: “Change is Hard”

Chambers have the opportunity to lead by example in deploying a results oriented approach to change within your organization and community. In this session, you’ll build your change leadership competence and learn frameworks for navigating internal and external change.

Presenter: Pablo Otaola, Thriving Culture LLC

December 7: “Innovative Ideas to Consider”

One of the many perks of the chamber industry is we can practice R&D (rip off and duplicate) to ensure we are providing innovative programming and resources in our communities. This webinar will expose you to a number of game-changing programs and resources that are worth copying!

Presenters: To be announced
